I INTRODUCTORY REMARKS

The Academy for Judges and Public Prosecutors "Pavel Shatev", in 2017, with the successful realization of all the envisaged activities, confirmed its maximum commitment to the improvement of the efficiency and effectiveness of the judicial system through professional training of the judges, public prosecutors, the judicial and prosecutorial service.

The Academy, in 2017, continued to work on the improvement of the quality of the trainings, by selecting new contents, methods and topics, in accordance with the international standards and training programs, on the strengthening of its own capacities, it expanded and strengthened the domestic and international cooperation, and at the same time consistently implemented the recommendations of the European Commission, contained in the reports on the monitoring of the progress of the Republic of Macedonia, of GRECO from the Fourth Evaluation Round and other international reports, thus continuously contributing to the strengthening of the expertise, professionalism and independence of the judiciary as one of the priorities of the judicial reforms in the Republic of Macedonia, and a key priority of the Partnership for Accession to the European Union.

The improvement of the competency of the judiciary by reforming the performance management systems and the strengthening of the systems for initial and continuous professional development were the priorities of the Academy. Within this framework, the Academy conducted all activities in accordance with the NPAA and for this purpose, in cooperation with the partners, conducted trainings, seminars, round tables, trainings for trainers and other educational events at basic and advanced level, in order to strengthen the teaching staff, by putting a special emphasis on the ethical principles, the ethical behavior of the judges and the public prosecutors, in order to strengthen the integrity and increase the trust among the public.

A pilot project was prepared for the purpose of assessing the effectiveness of the trainings and their effect on the improvement of the quality of the regular judicial and prosecutorial practice, in accordance with the recommendations of the hired expert within the framework of the IPA 2010 project, for the development of a "Methodology for assessment of the effectiveness of the trainings with mechanisms for qualitative assessment of the trainings", that will be realized in the first half of 2018 in partnership with the key domestic judicial institutions.

Within the framework of the initial training, that is, in March 2017, a theoretical training was initiated for 37 participants of the new sixth generation of participants in the Academy, which ended in December 2017. After the completion of the first stage – theoretical training in the Academy, the participants in the initial training will take a knowledge test after which, depending on the achieved success, will move to the second stage – practical training in the courts and public prosecutor's offices and other institutions, in accordance with the initial training program that will last 15 months.

The Program Council, in parallel with the theoretical training within the framework of the initial training, actively worked on the verification of the question databases and the case studies databases prepared by the lecturers for the purpose of preparing the knowledge test that the participants in the initial training are going to take after the completion of the theoretical training.

The implementation of the "Work Program for 2017" was complete, and all legal obligations regarding the continuous professional development of judges, prosecutors and other target groups were fulfilled through the implementation of the annual training plans for 2017. All project activities that arose from the international cooperation of the Academy with its foreign partners were fully realized as well.

In order to promote the judicial system of the Republic of Macedonia and its values, the Academy continued to strengthen the partnership with the training institutions of the countries from the region and Europe, in terms of the implementation of the training modules that represent training priorities, through active participation and networking in the Regional Cooperation Council (RCC), participation in the activities of the international bodies and organizations of the European Union, the Council of Europe and beyond, namely the European Judicial Training Network (EJTN), the GRECO Committee at the Council of Europe, the Consultative Council of European Judges (CCJE), the European Commission for the Efficiency of Justice (CEPEJ), the International Judicial Training Network (IJOT) and many others, while providing comparative information and translation of documents that made a significant contribution to the strengthening of the quality and efficiency of the judiciary.

Within the framework of the project "Joint Action for Urgent Judicial Reforms", the First Monitoring Report entitled "Judicial Reforms - from Priebe 1 to Priebe 2" was adopted. This monitoring report was based on the urgent reform priorities of June 2015, in terms of the rule of law and the judiciary - the judiciary sector (based on the Report of the expert group, led by Reinhard Priebe, from 2015), and the Second Report prepared by Priebe, from September 2017.

This monitoring report also included the Academy for Judges and Public Prosecutors Pavel Shatev, from which conclusions and recommendations for the promotion of the judiciary in general arose.

In addition, in June 2017, within the framework of the cooperation of the Academy with the Embassy of France in the Republic of Macedonia, an expert mission was held in order to improve the institutional capacities of the Academy by improving the training methodology and the capacities of the lecturers and mentors, conducting an objective evaluation of the initial and continuous professional development, increasing the quality of the training materials and improving the capacity of the Library of the Academy.

Following this mission, a monitoring report was prepared, which was presented to the Minister of Justice by the Ambassador of France in the Republic of Macedonia, H. E. Christian Thimonier.

II LEGISLATION

The Law on the Academy for Judges and Public Prosecutors ("Official Gazette of the Republic of Macedonia" No. 20/2015), together with the amendments and supplements ("Official Gazette of the Republic of Macedonia" No. 192/2015 and 231/2015), in terms of the status, promotes the previous legal concept regarding the independence and autonomy of the Academy, as well as the expertise and competence of its authorities and bodies and the continuous strengthening of the capacities of the teaching staff, in particular. At the same time, all by-laws, within the competences of the Management Board, are harmonized with the Law on the Academy and regulate in detail the internal organization and the manner of execution of all segments of the activity of the Academy.

III ACTIVITIES OF THE BODIES OF THE ACADEMY

1. WORK OF THE ACADEMY MANAGEMENT BOARD

In the course of 2017, the Academy Management Board held 13 meetings, which addressed important issues within the scope of the competences of the Management Board. At the proposal of the Program Council, the Management Board established a "Specialized Training Program for Lay Judges" and a "Supplementation of the Program for the entrance exam to the Academy", and "Modification of the initial training program". Regarding the bylaws, the Management Board adopted a "Rulebook on conducting the exam for lay judges", a "Rulebook on compensations", a "Rulebook on Initial Training", "Rulebook on Amending and Supplementing the Rulebook on Initial Training", a "Rulebook on Amending the Rulebook on Continuous Professional Development", a "Rulebook on Amending the Rulebook on Taking An Entrance Exam", a "Rulebook on Amending the Rulebook on systematization of the work positions in the Academy", and a "Rulebook on Amending and Supplementing the Rulebook on internal organization of the Academy".

The Academy Management Board adopted a "Report of the Commission for the entrance exam for the course and the procedure for conducting the entrance exam in 2016 for admission of participants to the initial training for the sixth generation in the Academy", a "Report on the work of the Academy for 2016", a "Final Report for 2016", a "Program for work in 2017", a "Report of the Commission for revision of the held exams, for the conducted revision of the entrance exam for admission of participants to the initial training for the sixth generation in the Academy", and adopted the "Procurement plan for 2017" and the "Financial Plan", based on the positive opinion of the Program Council, determined a supplementation to the List of lecturers at the Academy on several occasions.

The Management Board was regularly informed by the Director of all ongoing activities within the scope of the Academy's activity, adopted conclusions and decisions in the domain of its competence, among which the decision to establish a Commission for revision of the held exams and the decision to annul the public announcement of the Academy for Judges and Public Prosecutors "Pavel Shatev" for the admission of 60 trainees to the initial training-candidates for public prosecutors, which was published in accordance with the Law on Amending and Supplementing the Law on the Academy for Judges and Public Prosecutors ("Official Gazette of the Republic of Macedonia" no. 231/2016).

In addition, the Management Board followed the implementation of the Law on the Academy for Judges and Public Prosecutors ("Official Gazette of the Republic of Macedonia" No. 20/2015, 192/2015 and 231/2015) and at the proposal of the Director determined the text of the Notes from the bodies of the Academy regarding the implementation of the Law that was submitted to the Minister of Justice of the Republic of Macedonia.

Aside from this, the Management Board reviewed proposals for projects and provided guidelines for the cooperation with related institutions, organizations and associations, both from the country and abroad.

2. WORK OF THE PROGRAM COUNCIL OF THE ACADEMY

The Program Council as an expert body of the Academy monitors the implementation of the training programs, their efficiency and success, provides an opinion on the list of lecturers and continuously works on upgrading and improving the training programs, the teaching methodologies and techniques in cooperation with the lecturers, the mentors, the director and the professional service of the Academy, in accordance with the Law on the Academy for Judges and Public Prosecutors.

In the course of 2017, the Program Council, acting within the framework of its competencies stipulated by the Law on the Academy and the Statute, held sessions chaired by the Director of the Academy at which it provided guidance and determined: the "Proposal for a Specialized Training Program for Lay Judges", a "Proposal for Supplementing the Program for the Entrance Exam to the Academy", and the "Proposal for Amending the Initial Training Program" and gave a positive opinion on the supplementation of the list of eligible trainers in accordance with the Law on the Academy.

The Program Council, within the framework of the new competence envisaged by the Law on the Academy, worked on the verification of the database of questions and databases of case studies for conducting the knowledge test among the participants in the initial training after the completion of the theoretical training in the Academy, previously prepared by the lecturers at the Academy.

3. WORK AND ACTIVITIES OF THE DIRECTOR OF THE ACADEMY

The program for the work of the Director, adopted by the Academy Management Board, was fully implemented, in cooperation with the professional service. As part of the regular work activities, within the framework of the numerous consultations, round tables, trainings and conferences organized in the period from January to December 2017, in cooperation with domestic and foreign / international relevant institutions and projects, in which national and foreign experts participated and presented, the Director had a total of 28 greetings and thematic addresses.

The Director held work meetings with representatives of domestic and international institutions, embassies and projects, project evaluators, in order to negotiate and successfully implement projects, exchange experiences, of lecturers, organize study visits and publish publications, that is, for the purposes of strengthening the domestic and international cooperation with the judiciaries of many countries.

The Director actively participated in all working activities related to the realization of the "Action Plan of the Government of the Republic of Macedonia" prepared on the basis of the List of Urgent Reform Priorities for the Republic of Macedonia (in accordance with the "Reinhard Priebe Report"). According to that plan, in relation to the Academy, several activities related to the organization of trainings for judges and public prosecutors, dedicated to judicial ethics and integrity, trainings for trainers, as well as development of a methodology for evaluation of the training that include hiring a foreign legal expert, including exchange of experience and comparative practice, through organizing study visits of the European Court of Human Rights in Strasbourg.

As a result of the efforts of the Academy to establish cooperation with relevant domestic and international institutions and organizations from the non-governmental sector in the field of continuous and initial training, as well as the Macedonian judiciary in order to increase the professionalism and competence of the judges and prosecutors in the application of the national legislation and international standards, a Memorandum of cooperation between the Director of the Academy for Judges and Public Prosecutors and the Macedonian Young Lawyers Association has been signed as well as with the representatives of the Institute in Siragusa-Italy.

Thirty-seven participants from the sixth generation of the Academy for Judges and Public Prosecutors "Pavel Shatev" started the 24-month initial training at which they will be expertly and professionally trained for the judicial and public prosecution profession. The Director of the Academy wished the participants success and asked them to be ethical, conscientious and professional, while using the experience of the lecturers and mentors.

Within the framework of the regular working activities, the GRECO Committee of the Council of Europe, in the capacity of the Head of the Delegation of the Republic of Macedonia, the Director of the Academy, attended the 75th, 76th and 77th plenary sessions, and in that direction, in cooperation with all relevant institutions, especially the Ministry of Justice, the judiciary and the SCPC, implemented the activities for the purpose of implementing the obligations assigned to the Republic of Macedonia in the fourth evaluation round of the GRECO.

In order to strengthen the promotion of the work of the GRECO Committee, and with the purpose of starting an efficient fight against corruption in the country, the Director presented all the relevant facts related to this topic, as well as some of the more important documents that resulted from the GRECO meetings, were translated in Macedonian and published on the website of the Academy.

The Director of the Academy for Judges and Public Prosecutors Pavel Shatev was decorated with the Order "Knight of the National Order of Merit" by the French ambassador to Macedonia, Christian Thimonier, on behalf of the President of the Republic of France. The ambassador Thimonier stated at the ceremony that in the past 10 years the director has consistently advocated for the development of the cooperation between France and Macedonia in the field of the training of judges and public prosecutors, which is of great importance for the improvement of the judiciary through the application of the European standards.

➤ UNODC – United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime

The primary objective of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime Project (UNODC), the Department of Terrorism which is intended to assist the national judiciaries (Albania, BiH, Croatia, Kosovo, Montenegro, Serbia and the Republic of Macedonia) for the purpose of strengthening their expertise in the fight against new terrorist threats in Southeast Europe, is the development of training institutions in the national legislations in Southeast Europe, in order to provide trainings on specific legal and technical aspects related to the fight against terrorism, at the national and regional level, through modules that will include best practice and through relevant practical experiences.

In the course of 2017, the Academy in cooperation with the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime and the U.S. Embassy in the Republic of Macedonia, organized an event on the topic: "Research and verdict in cases involving foreign terrorist-fighters in Southeast Europe", in a period during which they are stronger and unfortunately more real, the terrorist threats at a global scale. The knowledge that the practitioners acquired through this event helped them to have better legal communication in practice and to share it with their colleagues.

At the end of the year, the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC) project organized training for foreign terrorist fighters in Vienna, Austria. At the same time, this was the last event of the project and currently the module for foreign terrorist fighters, which will soon be printed in English version is in its final phase.

The Academy for Judges and Public Prosecutors in cooperation with the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC), Department of Organized Crime and Illicit Human Trafficking in the course of 2017 started with the development of a curriculum for smuggling migrants.

The primary goal of the Department of Organized Crime and Illicit Human Trafficking, for the purpose of drafting a UNODC curriculum for the smuggling of migrants in order to emphasize the smuggling of migrants, is to promote global respect of the Migrant Smuggling Protocol signed by the Republic of Macedonia and to help countries in their efforts to conduct effective implementation. For this purpose, representatives of the Department of Organized Crime and Illicit Human Trafficking went on a working visit to the relevant judicial institutions in the Republic of Macedonia in the course of 2017. Given that the preparations for the drafting of the curriculum for smuggling of migrants are underway, the participation of all relevant institutions through the organization of a meeting for the purpose of their acquaintance and involvement in the preparation was of great importance.

In addition, a two-day training of trainers was organized in the course of 2017, which was related to the drafting of the curriculum for smuggling of migrants. The expert group that conducted the training consisted of an international consultant on migrant smuggling and human trafficking and a crime prevention and criminal justice officer from the UNODC Anti-Human Trafficking and Migrant Smuggling Unit. The meeting was attended by representatives of all relevant institutions

➤ OSCE MISSION TO SKOPJE

The planned activities within the framework of the cooperation between the Academy and the OSCE Mission to Skopje in the course of 2017 were realized through the organization of events dedicated to the anti-discrimination legislation and the concept of equality and the Law on Criminal Procedure.

The seminar was conducted by experts from the Institute for Defense and International Legal Studies from Wuport, Roud Ajlend (DILS), which was attended by 40 representatives from various institutions who work in the field of the fight against terrorism and are directly involved in activities aimed at combating terrorism.

In addition, the Academy, in the course of 2017 through the US Embassy in the Republic of Macedonia, and in cooperation and with the financial support of the US Embassy in Croatia, organized training of trainers on the development of a curriculum and methods for adult learning. The training represented an opportunity to encourage institutions and trainers that conduct trainings to develop strategic plans in a more efficient manner, to prepare a curriculum, and to use learning methods in order to develop a sustainable training program in a more efficient manner.

In the course of 2017, the Academy in cooperation with the Office of the US Department of Justice (OPDAT) and the US Embassy in the Republic of Macedonia organized a workshop on the topic "Cyber evidence of anti-terrorist investigations and charges", which was attended by practitioners working on issues related with terrorism, including electronic evidence, as well as evidence from social media sites and electronic storage devices (such as computers and smartphones). The workshop was conducted by the staff of the US Ministry of Justice and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

In addition, a workshop was organized in cooperation with the Office of the US Department of Justice (OPDAT) and the US Embassy in the Republic of Macedonia on the topic: "Investigation and prosecution of preparatory acts on terrorism, terrorist attacks and financing of terrorism" intended for practitioners dealing with cases of terrorism in the field of the judiciary, the prosecution, the Administration for Security and Counter-Intelligence, the Ministry of Interior and the Financial Intelligence Directorate.

The Academy, through the US Embassy in the Republic of Macedonia and at the invitation of the US Navy Department for the participation in a course on the topic: Legal aspects of the fight against corruption at the Institute of International Legal Studies, Newport, Rhode Island, US, nominated 2 public prosecutors and 1 judge. The aim of the course was for the participants to acquire knowledge and skills that would improve their ability to raise the awareness of public corruption, to explore mechanisms for improving the national efforts to prevent, detect, investigate and prosecute corrupt practices, to understand the international legal framework for combating corruption.

Advanced trainings on topics related to the Law on Criminal Procedure from 2010 are envisaged to be held in the course of 2018, and in cooperation with the US Embassy in the Republic of Macedonia. For this purpose, a training module was prepared by the lecturers of the Academy, and with the support of representatives from the US Embassy, covering the following topics:

- Module I: Pre-investigative procedure and investigation
- Module II: Settlement for criminal sanction, indictment, direct and cross-examination
- Module III: Financial investigations and expertise

X COMPUTER SYSTEM

Within the framework of the multi-annual project of the OSCE Mission to Skopje, in cooperation with the Academy for Judges and Prosecutors, a number of basic and advanced trainings for legal practitioners for the implementation of the Law on Criminal Procedure ("Official Gazette of the Republic of Macedonia", 150/2010, 100/2012) were conducted. The advanced trainings of 2013, were videotaped in order to ensure their preservation and further use. As a result of the video, as well as of the written materials from the advanced training this thematic web site was developed as a pilot project in 2015. The platform, which in 2016 referred to the first part of the total material, that is, Module 1, was upgraded and expanded into a modern platform covering all the material in 2017. An e-learning platform was created in order to make the training material available in electronic form to all current and future generations of legal practitioners. In 2017, the Academy, following the innovations in the field of information technology, was considering the possibilities for upgrading and implementing some of them, which would make the current distance learning module more efficient.

XIV EVALUATION

In the course of 2017, the Academy, for the needs of the continuous professional development, prepared a new questionnaire, which widely assesses: the content and purpose of the training, the lecturers, the training materials, the success of the program, and there is also a part for suggestions and comments.

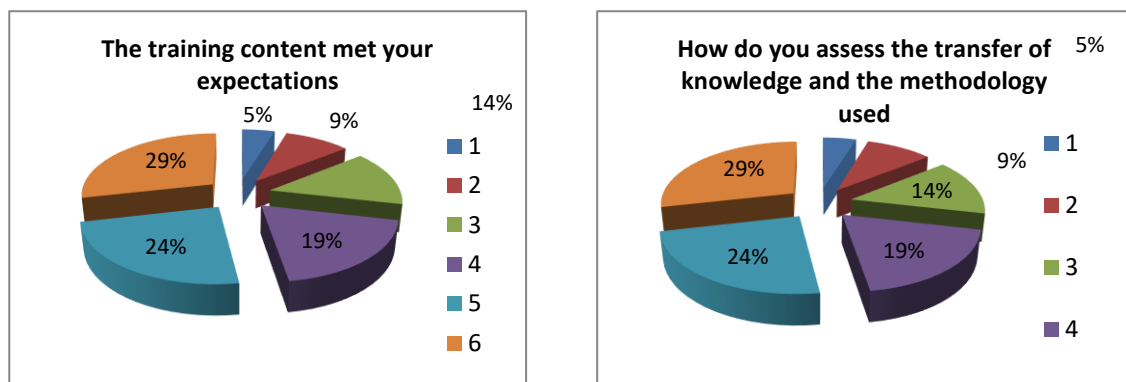

The preparation of the questionnaire was the final result of the project for the development of a new methodology for evaluation of the trainings. The Academy started this project in 2015, in cooperation with the IPA Project 2010 "Further support for independent, responsible, expert and efficient judiciary and improvement of the probation service and alternative measures". For the purpose of implementing this methodology, d-r Rainer Hornung, Deputy Public Prosecutor in the Public Prosecutor's Office of Lörrach, Germany and former director of the German Academy for Judges and Public Prosecutors was hired.

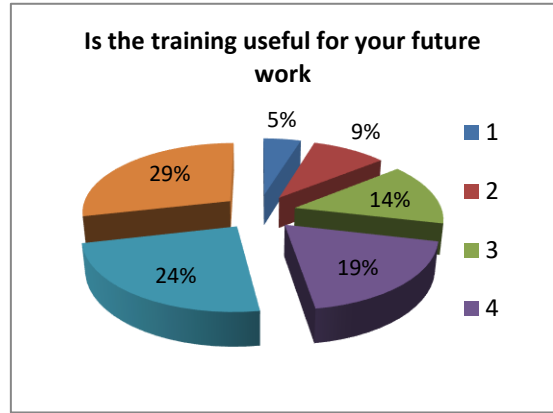

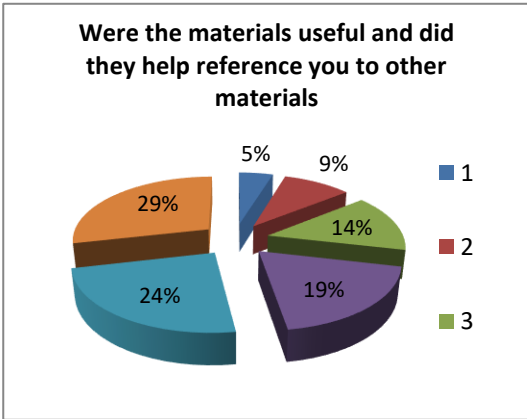

The project started with a 3-day working visit of d-r Hornung of the Republic of Macedonia, and two more visits followed in the course of the following year. During these visits, he held working meetings with representatives of the Ministry of Justice, the Judicial Council of the Republic of Macedonia, the Council of Public Prosecutors of the Republic of Macedonia, the members of the Management Board, the Program Council, lecturers, mentors, judges who attended initial training in the Academy and with the Director and the professional service of the Academy, in order to obtain information on the implementation of the events by the Academy.

Finally, a Report was prepared with recommendations for developing mechanisms for qualitative evaluation of the trainings. One of them was the preparation of a comprehensive questionnaire, which still remains a part of the working material for each training.

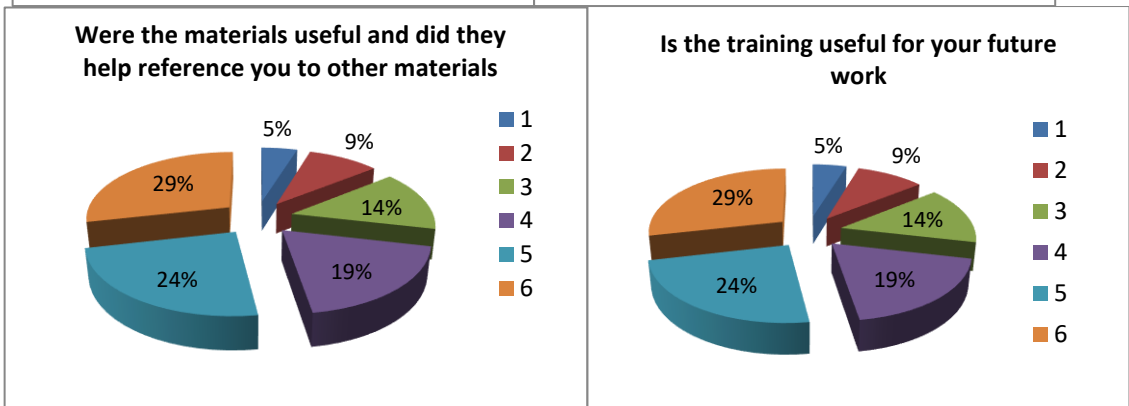

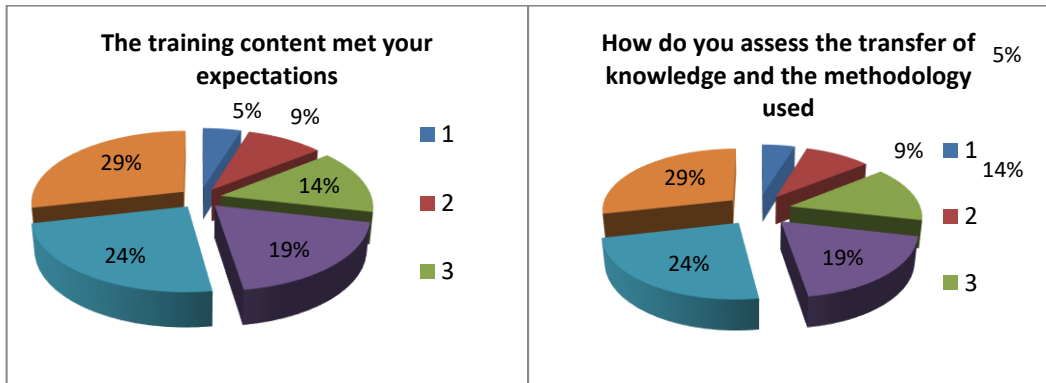

A review of the satisfaction of the participants of the trainings is given below
